

6516207791.txt

As a professional driver traveling the entire country I find satellite radio an invaluable tool. Not only for entertainment but also for the information I can only receive with my satellite receiver. I travel in many areas where normal radio reception is bad or non-existent. Satellite is the only way I can receive national weather and traffic info to keep my travels safe.